Never lose a chance of saying a kind word. As Collingwood never saw a vacant place in his estate but he took an acorn out of his pocket and popped it in, so deal with your compliments through life. An acorn costs nothing, but it may sprout into a prodigious bit of timber.—W. M. Thackeray.

Ulric Zwingli.

NO doubt the readers will look with interest on this picture in the person of the great hero, martyr and reformer, Ulric Zwingli. Being the leader of the great Reformation of the 16th century certainly gives him a place in history that can never be taken from him. He was born on New Year, 1484. What a proud mother that must have been if she knew the possible work and mission of her son. In the majesty of his Christian manhood he threw off the galling yoke of the Catholic Church and in 1516 commenced exposing her errors and sins until a grand revolution in thought, life and practice resulted. Ulric Zwingli fought for great principles and was willing even to hazard his life to maintain the right. He was assailed by the bitter enemies and being a chaplain in the Protestant army fell wounded upon the battle field of Cappel when a Roman soldier thrust him with a spear and thus he died a martyr's death with the triumphant exclamation, "They can kill the body, but they cannot kill the soul."

The Reformed Church of America.

Though not united in reality the Reformed Church of America and our own are closely related. They have the same catechism and in general the same forms of worship. This church was the first Protestant church in America. On the 7th of April, 1628. Jonas Michaelius, the first one of the Dutch ministers in America, arrived at New Amsterdam and immediately formed a church numbering fifty communicants. The next minister was Rev. E. Bogardus who came in the spring of 1633, accompanied by Adam Roelandsen the first school-master, for among the Dutch, the church and school went together.

Our Reformed Name.

Let our people understand that the name of our church stands for a principle and not a man. We are called Reformed because we date our birth as a church to the Reformation of the 16th century. We represent the first great movement toward a reformation in the life, cultus and doctrines of the church. The Reformed church is the mother of all evangelical Protestantism outside of Lutheranism, and her name is commanding the respect and confidence of all denominations of Christians. Let all her members honor her history and practice her principles.

Rapid Transit Heavenward.

Bishop Taylor, who tried it himself, says of the old "forty-niners" who went to California across the plains, those who traveled but six days in the week invariably arrived at their long journey's end several weeks in advance of others who observed no Sabbath. We are of the opinion that those who stick to the old-fashioned Sabbath-keeping, discarding Sunday newspapers, Sunday bicycle spurts and Sunday amusements generally, make the most rapid progress heavenward, also.

The True and Beautiful.

We want in our households whatever will ennoble, cultivate, purify, make us more capable of appreciating the work of God and the best works of man, and whatever will help us to do the work given us to do with patience, with fidelity, with cheerfulness. We find great help in seeing what others have done, and our own attempts in art work, even though humble, "charm the painted steps" over the rough path of duty, and give us little breathing spells, in which we get glimpses of the true and beautiful.

"I can hardly drive the children off to Sunday-school." Don't try then. The Good Shepherd would not have you do so. His way is to lead his flock, and your best way to help him is as a bell-wether, and not as a dog.

The saloon-keeper put water, sugar and whisky in a tumbler for his customer. Now, what came out of that tumbler? In the first place, the customer's wife got a beating out of it, and, in the second place, the customer himself got six weeks in prison. Beats all the sleight-of-hand in the world!

The Authors of the Catechism.

WE believe our readers will have a certain degree of pride in the men who formulated our catechism, and hence we have here given room for their portraits. For the work and history of these men we refer you to the books published along this line. Ursinus and Olevianus are names that will live as long as the principles of the Reformation endure. The task they performed as authors of the Heidelberg Catechism was great in every sense, because they lived in trying times, when the whole world was in commotion upon the subject of the Reformation. When they were appointed to draw up a formula of faith it required clear minds, ripe judgment, profound thought, and deep piety. To do a work like this for the whole church, as well as for future generations required clear and decided action. These men fought the battle and established the faith, and today their names should be spoken with reverence, "for the memory of the just is blessed."

URSINUS.

The Distinctive Principles of the Reformed Church.

The distinctive principles of the Reformed Churches, as laid down at the councils held in Zurich in 1523 and subsequently, as follows: (1) A high yet discriminating estimate of the value of the Holy Scriptures; (2) a maintenance of a spiritual, reverential and dignified form of religious worship, not anti-liturgical, but anti-ritualistic; (3) the decided position of the churches in their advocacy of civil liberty and the rights of conscience; (4) the adherence to a spiritual form of church government as understood by them, uninfluenced by views of mere expediency; (5) the defense of the New Testament document of the divine sovereignty and the believers' right to come directly to God in Christ without other mediation; and (6) the testimony to the fact of man's fallen condition and his possible salvation alone through a crucified Redeemer and regeneration by the Holy Spirit.—Dr. Van Horne.

The Heidelberg Catechism.

Do our people know sufficiently about the symbol of our faith? We fear many members of the Reformed Church forget what characterizes our church above other denominations. It is due to the teaching of these blessed doctrines that we today are honored. The Heidelberg Catechism was formulated in 1563 and has since been translated into almost all the modern languages. It has a claim upon every member of the Reformed Church. "Its whole make-up is peculiar. Both in plan and spirit it differs from all other catechisms and confessions of the Reformation period. It is full of theology, and yet not stiffly theological; strongly doctrinal, but yet thoroughly practical, profound, but not speculative; comprehensive, but simple; peaceful, but not compromising." Bullinger wrote to a friend: "I have read the Catechism of the Elector Palatine Frederick, with the greatest interest, and have blessed God while doing so, who thus perfects His own work."

OLEVIANUS.

No man or woman, even of the humblest sort, can be strong and gentle and pure and good, without the world being better for it—without somebody being helped and comforted by the very existence of that goodness.

It is an easy thing for a modern cannon to send a solid shot for five miles and more. No gun has been invented which could, even with the best ammunition, hurl a feather a like distance. So it is far easier to throw off our real troubles than the imaginary ones which so often oppress our spirits.

Rev. M. Peters, A. M., B. D.

REV. M. PETERS, A. M., B. D., was born June 8, 1851, in Washington Township, Lehigh Co., Pa., the son of Reuben and Sarah (George) Peters.

REV. M. PETERS.

He attended the common and normal school and taught for four terms in the public schools. He also took a course of preparatory studies in Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, Pa., and was graduated from this institution in the classical course, preparatory to college, in June, 1870. He entered college in the spring term of the Freshman year 1871, and was graduated from Ursinus College in June, 1874. Studied theology for three years in Yale Divinity School and was graduated in 1877 with the title B. D. Was engaged in Home Mission work on the coast of Maine for three months during the summer after the junior year (1875) under the auspices of the Maine Home Missionary Society, and in Nebraska for three months after the middle year (1876) under the American Home Missionary Society. Served as pastor of St. John's Reformed Church, Hamburg, Pa., 1877-1880. The only safe investments in this world are those where God's word is the security.

The Best Words.

A loving word is always a safe word. It may, or it may not, be a helpful word to the one who hears it, but it is sure to be a pleasant memory to the one who speaks it. Many a word spoken by us is afterward regretted; but no word of affectionate appreciation to which we have given utterance finds a place among our sadly remembered expressions. Looking back over our intercourse with a dead friend or fellow-worker, we may, indeed, regret that we were ever betrayed into a harsh, or hasty, or unloving word of censure or criticism in that intercourse; and we may wish vainly that we had now the privilege of saying all the loving words that we might honestly have spoken while he was yet with us. But there will never come into our hearts at such a time a single pang of regret over any word of impulsive or deliberate affection which passed our lips at any time. We have reason to be on our guard in our speech in most directions; but we can be fearlessly free in our loving utterances. Apart from any question of the good we do to others by our words of love, we are personally the gainers, for now and for hereafter, by every such word which we speak out explicitly; and we are sure to be the losers, now and by and by, from every such word which we ought to have spoken and failed to speak.—Sunday-school Times.

The Reformed Faith in Japan.

In Sendai, Japan, our Reformed Church is strongly represented, and already about 2,000 souls are members of what we may call the united church, but really they have accepted the Reformed faith and are Reformed Christians.

Gently as lilies shed their leaves
When summer days are fair,
The feathery snow comes floating down,
Like blossoms on the air;
And o'er the world like angel's wing
Unfolding soft and white,
It broods above the brown, sere earth,
And fills with forms of light
The dead and desolate domain
Where winter holds his iron reign.

Alcide Reichenbach, A. M.

PROFESSOR ALCIDE REICHENBACH is a native of Switzerland, but a citizen of the United States. In early youth he manifested a disposition to be industrious, and he frequently worked too hard for his physical strength as a boy. At school he sometimes studied to his detriment, while his classmates enjoyed themselves at play. When the time came for catechetical instruction, he entered upon the study of the catechism and the Bible with the same zeal that characterized his study at school. He sought to serve his Master rather than to serve the world. Having refused several offers to engage in profitable business requiring the use of German and French, he sought the occupation in which he could do the most good. While further pursuing his studies in this country and in Europe, the profession of teaching presented itself as the one in which he was to serve his God and the human race. Having studied the systems of education on both sides of the Atlantic, Professor Reichenbach organized and conducted a normal school, having a four years' course, at Bridgewater, Va., from which the first class of white teachers was graduated, in that State, in the year 1877. Removing to Cumberland, Md., the same year, the school board directed him to organize the city high school and the county normal school, both of which he managed successfully for two years. As he desired more rest than a short vacation could afford, he then returned to Europe once more. On his return trip, the seventh across the Atlantic, he visited Ursinus College for the first time, where he was afterwards elected Principal of the Academic Department, July 13, 1880. This position he filled with advantage to the college for eleven years. Two years ago he was elected Professor of Pedagogy; at the same time he also resumed the teaching of German and French. Last year he was elected Professor of German and Pedagogy, and Instructor in French, which position he still occupies.

A German Reformed Pioneer.

Dr. Dubbs in his books speaks of a man who deserves mention as a pioneer among Reformed people who came to America. "The first permanent settlement on the west bank of the Delaware was founded by a Swedish colony, in 1638, forty-four years before the arrival of Wm. Penn. In that year two ships, the 'Bird Griffin,' and the 'Key of Calmar,' entered the Delaware and took formal possession of the unoccupied territory on its western banks in the name of the Crown of Sweden. The expedition was commanded by a German named Peter Minuit. He was a deacon in the Reformed Church of the city of Wesel. Minuit deserves a higher position in history than has been generally accorded him.

The Reformed Church in Philadelphia, Pa., owes its organization to Rev. Geo. Michael Weis, who came to America in the year 1727, with about four hundred colonists, most of whom appear to have been members of the Reformed Church. He organized the Reformed Church in Philadelphia, and also preached at Skippack.

Man and His Enemy.

The devil never has any power to scare us as long as we keep him behind us.

Poor digestion has a good deal to do with the devil's success in some places.

The man who does not believe in revivals never has any very hard battles with the devil.

The man who willfully wrongs another is helping the devil to put a rope around his own neck.

As long as a man can be kept busy for God, the devil don't stand very much of a chance with him.

REV. H. K. MILLER.

New Missionary to Japan.

THE Board of Foreign Missions in July, 1892, had before it a question of vital interest and importance. They were to select a new missionary as teacher in the Theological School at Sendai, Japan. While a number of names were prominently before the Board none had better claims than the one on whom the lot fell. Mr. Harry K. Miller, son of Elder Daniel Miller, Reading, Pa., was the one chosen. He is well qualified for the position, being young and of brilliant intellect. He goes as one wholly given up to the work. His heart is in it and we believe the results of work will tell upon the mission. He left San Francisco, September 27, for Japan.

Don't be too Sensitive.

There are people—yes, many people—always looking for slights. They can not carry on the daily intercourse of the family without finding that some offense is designed. They are as touchy as hair-triggers. If they meet an acquaintance who happens to be preoccupied with business, they attribute his distraction in some mode personal to themselves, and take umbrage accordingly. They lay on others the fruit of their irritability. Indigestion makes them see impertinence in everyone with whom they come in contact. Innocent persons, who never dreamed of giving offense, are astonished to find some impertinent word or momentary taciturnity mistaken for an insult. To say the least, the habit is unfortunate. It is far wiser to take the more charitable view of our fellow-beings, and not suppose that a slight is intended, unless the neglect is open and direct. After all, too, life takes its hue, in a great degree, from the color of our own mind. If we are frank and generous, the world will treat us kindly; if on the contrary we are suspicious, men will learn to be cold and cautious to us. Let a person get the reputation of being "touchy," and everybody is under restraint, and in this way the chances of an imaginary offense are vastly increased.

Alliance of Reformed Churches.

This assembly met in Toronto, Canada, and was one of the most interesting gatherings the alliance has ever enjoyed. The statistics were of an interesting and encouraging character, there being a constituency of 20,000,000, throughout the world. It was definitely stated that there had been additions to the membership of at least a quarter of a million.

Only.

Only a bud we call it,
But its pale green leaflets fold
Over the summer's beauty
And the autumn's treasured gold.

Only a little brown acorn,
But we shall find at length
It cradled the forest monarch
With all his mighty strength.

Only a kind word spoken,
Only a kind look given.
But they filled a life with beauty,
And a soul was raised to heaven!

Elder Wabash (Chicago): "I have been requested by the congregation to call and remonstrate with you." Rev. White: "What about?" Elder Wabash: "Last Sunday you took 'The Old, Old Story' as your text. Now, they object to a man who gets such a salary as you do working over any chestnuts."

You will see the pools and standing water frozen through the winter, when the little running streams are bounding along between fringes of icy gems. Why is this? The streams have something else to do than to stand still to be frozen up. Be you like them. Keep your hearts warm by feeling for others, and your powers active by work done in earnest.—John Hall.

Christ Reformed Church, Bethlehem, Pa.

In which the Fourth Annual Convention of the Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip was held, September 9-11, 1892.

REV. G. A. SCHWEDES, PASTOR.

FOR about one hundred years Bethlehem was peopled exclusively by Moravians, who established the town in 1742, and called it after the Savior's birthplace in Judea. During that period the congregation and the town were one; no person could own property or engage in business, who was not a member of the old historic congregation. As soon as this policy was abolished, however, a stream of people began to pour in from the neighboring towns and country, and in a few years a sufficient number of Reformed people had made their home here to start a new interest. In the spring of 1850, Christ Reformed Church was organized by Rev. J. C. Becker, D. D., whose parish included an adjacent area of about twenty miles in diameter. The Lutherans organized a congregation about the same time and united with the Reformed in building a "Union Church," the corner-stone of which was laid September 1, 1850. Dr. Becker's pastorate continued to 1856, and his remains are interred in the Union Cemetery of Bethlehem. His successor was Rev. A. J. G. Dubbs, D. D., now of Allentown, 1856-1857. Rev. D. Y. Heisler, D. D., was the third pastor, and labored here from 1857 to 1866, during which time the congregation prospered and gained largely in membership. His successor was Rev. I. K. Loos, D. D., 1867-1888, whose pastorate began under very favorable auspices. With a nucleus of members he organized the First Reformed Church of South Bethlehem, in the fall of 1867. The Union Church having become too small for the growing membership, the Reformed sold their interest to the Lutherans, and built the church in which the congregation is now worshipping, the corner-stone having been laid in 1869. It was dedicated in 1872, erected at a cost of more than $35,000. Dr. Loos continued his labors until 1888, when, after a division of the congregation he organized and became pastor of St. Paul's Reformed Church. His remains lie at rest in the Union Cemetery. His successor is the present incumbent, Rev. G. A. Schwedes, who was installed as pastor in September, 1889. A new interest having been fostered in West Bethlehem, the consistory organized the Bethany Reformed Church in December 1891. Christ Church is the mother of all the Reformed Churches in the Bethlehems, having a present membership of about 450. The societies are: Ladies' Aid, Young Ladies' Guild, Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip and the Sunday-school.

If I love God with all my heart, then my heart must be full of love. And if my heart is full of love, how can there be room for sin? It is being filled with all the fullness of God, and such a fullness does not admit of remaining depravity. Again I am commanded to love God with all my heart when and where I love my neighbor as myself. That must be in this world, not in heaven.

Rev. F. Strassner.

REV. F. STRASSNER is well known to the readers of the Christian World, and to those who read that paper when published by Rev. Geo. W. Williard, D. D., as the Western Missionary by the "Observations of the Bush Pfarrer." When about eighteen years of age he left his native city, Bremen, Germany, to become an American citizen. He readily identified himself with the life, custom and language of this country, without, however, denying his foreign birth and mother tongue. He studied for the ministry in Lancaster and Mercersburg, Pa. On account of the lack of pecuniary means he accepted a call to assist Rev. Geo. Wolf, D. D., (who was disabled to preach), nine months in the Paradise Charge, completing his theological studies. The Board of Missions assigned him to labor in and about Wilkesbarre, Pa., which charge had been vacant a number of years; here he was ordained in 1859. After almost five years of indefatigable activity in collecting the congregations there appeared an insurmountable difficulty in saving the church property in Wilkesbarre, which a year after his resignation was sold. This caused him to go to the State of Ohio in 1865, locating near Tiffin, as pastor of the Berwick Charge, succeeding Rev. J. Escher. In 1868, his services were required at Lancaster, Ohio, this congregation had divided through political agitation. When this breach had healed he became the pastor of the Baltimore Charge in 1869, reviving and establishing this charge, he was induced to take a boundary charge in Wayne County, which was after five years' labor divided, remaining at Orrville, eighteen years, where he expected to close his ministerial work, but another transplanting seemed necessary and since 1889, he is located at Canton, Ohio. As a German-American he has had sad experiences. Both the Germans and the Americans have often viewed him with suspicion, while he considered our beloved Reformed Church above language differences. He was married in Lebanon, Pa., to Miss Mary G. Gleim, in 1861. Eleven children were born, of which nine are living.

The Theological Seminaries.

The Reformed Church owes far more to the seminaries than they receive credit for. There schools of the prophets are centers of education. They prepare our ministers for their high and holy calling. They are Bible schools, intended to prepare the young men to preach the gospel. As they bear such an intimate relation to the church it certainly behooves the church to support them. None of our seminaries are endowed as they should be and hence they are not able to do the work they might accomplish. The cause of the Lord demands haste and we should find a more liberal response to the call for help.

Do right, and God's recompense to you will be the power of doing more right. Give, and God's reward to you will be the spirit of giving more. Love, and God will pay you with the capacity of more love, for love is heaven and the Spirit of God within you.

"What is a lake?" asked the teacher. A bright little Irish boy raised his hand. "Well, Mikey, what is it?" "Sure, it is a hole in the kittle, mum."

Every promise of God is built upon four pillars—God's justice or holiness, which will not suffer him to deceive; his grace or goodness, which will not suffer him to forget; his truth, which will not suffer him to change, and his power, which makes him able to accomplish.—Salter.

The City of Reformed Churches.

THE city of Reading may be truly called the city of Reformed Churches. There are eleven active, well organized and flourishing churches in this city. Largely this is due to the missionary spirit of all the pastors, especially of the older congregations. They swarm every few years and in this way plant new hives all over the city. This is a good example for the Reformed Churches in other cities. Too many remain dormant and inactive and hence no swarm occurs. May the history of the Reformed Church in Reading, Pa., repeat itself in other places.

Like a Half-Finished Portrait.

Life is one grand insufficiency. Human life is like a half-finished portrait; the features marked out and hinted at, some one part, perhaps, carried further than another; but no man can determine what it is or how it shall look when it is perfected. In this life we are grinding pigments, we are collecting materials; we but dimly see, and that imperfectly. But there will come a day when I shall know even as

FIRST REFORMED CHURCH, READING, PA.

Rev. H. Mosser, D. D., Pastor.

Beneficiary Education.

The Reformed Church has much to rejoice over when she bears in mind that many of our noblest, best, most successful, and consecrated ministers are those whom she supported as beneficiary students. The cause of beneficiary education gives all it costs in the way of supplying good men for the ministry. Let this cause lie nearer the hearts of the Reformed people that they may more cheerfully and liberally remember this cause. It is worthy our best support.

I am known; and as God the all-knowing looks through and through me, and knows me altogether, I shall behold him as he is, and all shadows and partialities will have passed away forever.—Beecher.

In a sham battle everybody admires the uniform, the music, the precision of the march. But in a real battle there is a desperate earnestness that can not stay to admire anything—that just girds itself up for death or victory.

When we seem to be sacrificing things most precious to us we are often receiving them back in some imperishable form. When we seem to be working solely for others we are often serving ourselves in the highest and noblest way.

Rev. M. G. I. Stern, D. D.

REV. M. G. I. STERN, D. D., was born May 9, 1828; came to Pennsylvania from Europe in his 21st year; studied theology at Mercersburg; entered the seminary and attended Dr. Nevin's lectures in the college. Was examined by Mercersburg Classis at Chambersburg, Pa., in the fall of 1852, and sent as a missionary to Rochester, N. Y. Had not been there quite a year, when he received an invitation to go to New York, and become the pastor of the Forsyth Street Reformed Church, the oldest Reformed Church in the city. Circumstances prevented his going there however, and instead he went to Ohio, accepted the Delaware Charge, at that time, consisting of two congregations the Delaware and Middletown, (now Prospect) congregations. The charge prospered under his ministerial labors. The church at Delaware was built and almost entirely paid while Dr. Stern was pastor. After laboring here three years, from January 1854 to 1857, preaching in both languages, he was called by the congregation in Indianapolis, to become the successor of Rev. Geo. Long in that mission. He received $100 support per annum from the Eastern

Board and after two years the congregation became self-sustaining. In January 1868, he took charge of the St. John's Church, (the second church) which is now the largest congregation of our denomination in Indianapolis, and D. V., on the first Sunday in January, 1893, he will be able to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of his pastorate in this congregation and the thirty-sixth of his labors in the city. Verily a good record. Of the ministers, who composed Indiana Classis at the time he entered it, only three are yet alive: Rev. C. Kuss, Rev. A. Toensmeier, Sr., and the subject of this sketch; the latter however, the only one yet in active work. Dr. Stern was for a number of years the Treasurer of the Board of Home Missions of the Central Synod, and the Synod of the Northwest, and has now for several successive terms been the head or President of said Board. And through his activity along this line, and also being the instrument of starting a Church Erection Fund in these two Synods, he has become one of the best known preachers in the German part of our church.

Missions are moving rapidly on the powers of darkness. The more infidels denounce them and proclaim their want of success the more they multiply their agencies for spreading the gospel and widen the field of their influence. Under the care of the American Board alone there are twenty-one missions dispensing the gospel to 100,000,000 people. Five hundred and thirty-eight missionaries, 2,648 native helpers, with 38,226 communicants, are numbered by this single society. It has 46,403 scholars in its schools, and 100,000 patients in its hospitals. All heathendom is not doing so much to enlighten the ignorant and bring relief and comfort to the suffering as is this one missionary Board. The protests and predictions of infidels amount to nothing in the face of such a record.

The lovely valleys in which we meet our friends and business associates ought to be just as verdant and well watered as those Sabbath elevations on which we "see no man but Jesus only."

TRINITY CHURCH, COLUMBIA, PA.

Rev. J. H. Pannebecker, Pastor.

The Reformed Church and Missions.

THE Reformed Church has made rapid progress in her missionary operations. Much more could be done if the proper missionary spirit prevailed among the members. When the Moravian Church can give on an average $3.00 per member it would seem reasonable for the Reformed Church to average at least $1.00. What a grand collection that would make. Set your stakes and try it.

Our Work in Japan.

The Reformed Church may point with gratitude at the work she is doing in Japan. Our mission station is a good one and doing effective work for the masses. One of the missionaries said in a letter:

The Reformed Church has one of the best opportunities here in northern Japan that has ever offered itself to any church working in a pagan land. The foundations of our work are laid, and they are broad and well laid, I firmly believe. We have with us some of the strongest native workers in Japan. A wide field is before us, for which as yet we are almost entirely responsible, the Congregational, Methodist, and Baptist work in this northern section being comparatively weak. And the Reformed Church has only this one foreign mission in the world and can easily meet all its requirements. Only let us have a few more men and half again as much money as we now get for school and evangelistic work, and we can do the work for north Japan."

To the existing translations of the Bible, in whole or in part, which now aggregate nearly two hundred and fifty, has been added a translation of the books of Genesis and Exodus for the use of the people who inhabit the Mortlack Islands, situated near the equator. The translation is written in the Ruk language, and is a remarkable literary production. Many years have been occupied in preparing this translation, the work having been begun by Rev. R. W. Logan, missionary to the islands, long before his death.

Mrs. Logan took up the labor where it was left by her husband, and has only recently completed it. The work was published by the Bible society during the past summer.

Our Mothers

Hundreds of stars in the lovely sky,
Hundreds of shells on the shore together,
Hundreds of birds that go singing by,
Hundreds of birds in the sunny weather.

Hundreds of dewdrops to greet the dawn,
Hundreds of bees in the purple clover,
Hundreds of butterflies on the lawn,
But only one mother, the wide world over!

It is astonishing how soon the whole conscience begins to unravel if a single stitch is dropped. One little sin indulged makes a hole you could put your head through.

Jupiter (♄) is in opposition with the sun on the 18th, and shines all night.

Happiness is a sunbeam which may pass through a thousand bosoms without losing a particle of its original ray; nay, when it strikes on a kindred heart, like the converged light on a mirror, it reflects itself with double brightness. Happiness is not perfected till it is shared.

—Porter.

Mission House, Franklin, Wisconsin.

THE above cut represents the center and newest one of the buildings—nine in all—which together are known as the “Mission House,” the German educational institution of our church, located near Franklin, Sheboygan county, Wisconsin. Here young men are educated for the Christian ministry in our church or as teachers or, as a number of students have done, take a thorough good college course and then continue their studies or researches along some other line in some other school, college or university. The first building was erected in 1862. Previous to this Rev. Prof. H. A. Muehlmeier, D. D., had begun to educate young men for the ministry and missionary work, by taking them into the humble parsonage of the congregation in “town” Herman, Sheboygan county, only a half mile from the present college campus. Pretty soon however, a second house had to be built, and in a few years, the number of students increasing, these two were crowded and a third one was built. In the meantime the services of two very able professors, Rev. J. Bossard, Ph.D., and Rev. Prof. H. Kurtz, D. D., had been secured and they were actively engaged in training these devoted young men, many of whom have since done pioneer work in the frontier. One building after another has been built or purchased, until today there are four buildings, containing apartments for the students. Another near by contains dining-room and kitchen in the basement and a home for one of the professors or housefather on ground floor and still another in the second story, whilst there are four other houses which form comfortable and cozy homes for as many professors. The institution is owned and conducted by the three German Synods, which elect a Board of Regents and of Visitation composed of nine members, three from each synod. Nearly 150 acres of farm land belong to the Mission House besides a piece of wood land, from which the fuel is obtained. A considerable share of what is needed in the kitchen and in the barn is raised, the students helping to do the work. The institution is kept up by voluntary offerings. “The Lord will provide” is the hope and confidence of those in charge.

Rev. Benj. S. Stern.

REV. BENJ. S. STERN, pastor of the Second (German) Reformed Church of Dayton, Ohio, was born at Louisville, Ky., November 14, 1864. He is the youngest son of Rev. M. Stern, D. D., nephew of Rev. M. G. I. Stern, D. D., and brother of Rev. H. I. Stern, A. M., Corydon, Ind. His father, who died in Louisville, in 1876, was widely known as one of the pioneer preachers and an active church worker. The subject of this sketch attended the public schools in Louisville, Ky., and one year in Galion, Ohio, and after his father's death removed to Indianapolis, where he made his home with his uncle and attended high school and graduated from the same in 1880. He then—like a great many other boys or young men—wanted to work, and did so for four years, after which he entered the Sophomore year of the College of the Mission House; and also studied theology there, completing his studies in June, 1890; and on the sixth of July, preached his first sermon as pastor of the German Reformed Church of Dayton, being ordained on the 23d, by a committee of Cincinnati Classis. On the 6th of October, 1891, he entered the holy bonds of matrimony with Clara E. Zimmerman, grand-daughter of Rev. Dan. Zimmerman, D. D., for many years missionary superintendent in the West. Under the pastorate of this young brother the charge is flourishing. The congregation has a new and beautiful home and is growing in numbers and as it seems, also in knowledge and in grace.

“Hail Christmas.”

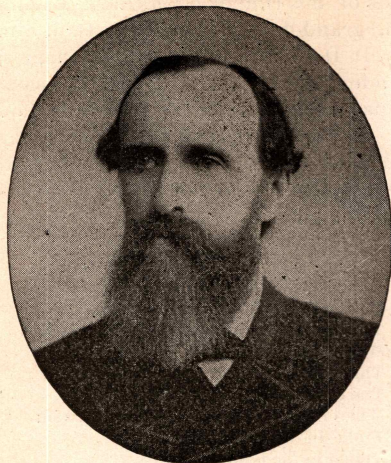

Hail to the joyous Christmas morn!
The day when Christ the Lord was born;
When seraphs sung the heavenly lay
That ushered in the new born day.
The time that prophets did foretell,
When he should come on earth to dwell;
From sin to set the people free,
Veiled in the flesh, the Deity.
On Bethlehem's plains the shepherds sing,
And Juda's children hail their King.

When light breaks o'er the eastern skies,
And sunbeams through the clouds arise,
The gorgeous tints of morn unfold,
Tipping Judea's hills with gold;
The seers come their Lord to greet,
And pour their treasures at his feet.
“Glory to God!” they cried, and then,
“Peace on earth, good-will to men.”
On Bethlehem's plains the shepherds sing,
And Juda's children hail the King.

Christmas Time.

Throughout all Christendom there is a merry ringing of the Christmas bells. What a blessed season it is. The Reformed Church lays special stress upon its proper observance. It should be an occasion of joy because of the Savior's birth. It celebrates that event which has given occasion for the angelic song, “Glory to God in the highest.”

The members of the Reformed Church are under moral obligation to support and read the books and papers and periodicals published in the interest of the church. We have books and papers which rank as high in merit as similar works in other churches. A wider circulation and a more faithful reading of them by our Reformed people would do good in many ways.

REV. JOHN S. STAHR, PH.D.
President of Franklin and Marshall College and member of the International Sunday-school Committee.

The Reformed Church and Temperance.

ON the subject of temperance, the Reformed Church in the various synods and classes has given frequent expression. It views this as an evil and sin which if practiced by its members throws them liable to discipline. It is an evil which cannot be countenanced and should at all times and under all circumstances be rebuked and reprovcd.

Women's Missionary Societies.

The women of the Reformed Church are no longer strangers to the work of missionary societies. They are being well established and the congregations are falling in line, organizing societies and mission bands. The work is extending and embraces both the east and west and north and south.

Modest and Truthful.

Whoever undertakes to question bright children must be prepared for most surprising truthful answers at times.

King Frederick VI. of Denmark, while traveling through Jutland, one day entered a village school, and found the children lively and intelligent, and quite ready to answer his questions.

"Well, youngsters," he said, "what are the names of the greatest kings of Denmark?"

With one accord they cried out, "Canute the Great, Waldemar, and Christian IV."

Just then a little girl to whom the school-master had whispered something, stood up and raised her hand.

"Do you know another?" asked the king.

"Yes; Frederick VI."

"What great act did he perform?"

The girl hung her head, and stammered out—

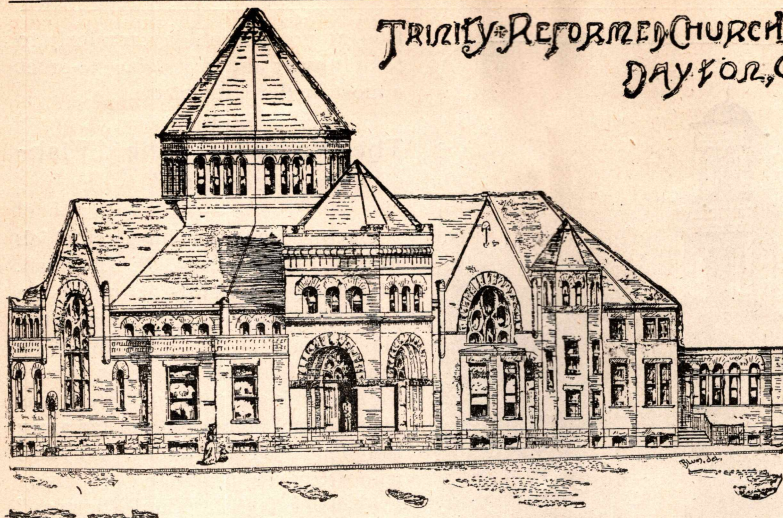

"I don't know."

"Be comforted, my child," said the king;

"I don't know, either."

Be of a Thankful Spirit.

"Be careful [anxious] for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. (Phil. 4:6.) God is not trusted when we worry. The Christian has no more right to worry and fret about things he can not help than he has to steal or break the Sabbath. One is just as sinful as the other, because all are the children of unbelief. The only right way to pray is to do it with a thankful heart, and true faith in God will always enable us to do this. If we honestly believe that God will not permit anything to happen that will not bring us good, we can even be grateful for our disappointments. It is always the grateful soul which obtains a quick audience with God. The man who is not thankful does not know half the time whether he really has any God or not. Therefore always go thanking God for what you have every time you ask for what you want. It is hard for a parent to keep his hand off the head of a child who goes to him with a shining face. Another thing: When you go to God for bread, don't begin by making a speech in admiration of the mill where the wheat was ground, but say bread and get it before you starve to death. Don't expect to earn it and pay for it with future service, but look for it as the gift of his own free grace.

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH
DAYTON, O.

The History of Trinity Reformed Church, Dayton, Ohio.

THE congregation of Trinity Reformed Church was organized on December 12, 1886, in the lecture room of the First Reformed Church. The first service was held January 7, 1887. On the afternoon of that date a Sabbath-school was organized, and on the Wednesday evening following the first prayer-meeting held. On the day of organization fifty members had been secured, as the original or charter members of the organization. The complete membership at this date is 305.

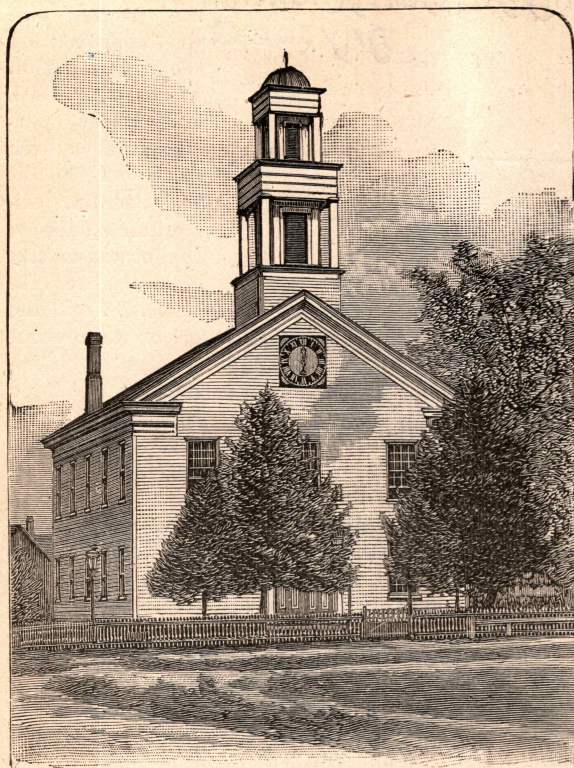

Immediately after the organization a hall in the Reibold Building, at the corner of Fifth and Jefferson Streets, was secured and properly fitted for church services. Rev. E. Herbruck, senior editor of the Christian World, was secured as pastor to serve until a permanent pastor could be secured. His ministrations continued until September 1, 1887, when Rev. D. W. Ebbert began a pastorate which continued until February 3, 1890. At this period Dr. Herbruck again took the pulpit temporarily until September 7, 1890, when Rev. Chas. E. Miller, the present pastor, began his ministry.

The first decisive step towards erecting the church was taken March 11, 1890, by the appointment of a committee to select sites.

The selection of the present site was approved by the congregation August 27th, 1890, and finally purchased at a cash price of $6,500. The peculiar triangular shape of the lot was matter of much adverse criticism, but the plans worked out show it to be admirably adapted to a church building, complete and perfect in all details, according to the standard of modern church buildings. The building is 132x126x86 feet. The dome is seventy-two feet high and thirty feet across, the tower forty-two feet high and sixteen feet square, the auditorium 62x62 feet, seating 600; the Sunday-school, 38x38, with gallery, seating with the infant class department, about 500.

A church parlor will accommodate sixty and an alcove above the auditorium seventy-five. When thrown together nearly 1,000 people can be seated within sight and hearing of the pulpit. The Sabbath-school department is on the modern plan of circular class rooms, with a gallery, all capable of being thrown together by means of lifting doors and rolling partitions. The material used in the building are red rock-faced brick—the first used in the city—with brown sandstone trimmings and blue slate roof.

At the organization of the congregation a Woman's Missionary Society and Ladies' Association was formed. Subsequently a Society of Christian Endeavor was organized for the young people. The next organized work was for the little ones under the name of "The Gleaner." There was organized for distinctive and systematic work for the young men a chapter of the "Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip." The last organization effected was the Young Ladies' Auxiliary, which merged into a circle of the King's Daughter's.

Trinity Church, Basil, Ohio.

REV. G. H. LEONARD, PASTOR.

FORTY-SIX years ago, A. D., 1847, this church was built during the pastorate of the Rev. Jesse Schlosser, who was also the architect and contractor. Co-operating with the pastor, the sainted Elder Henry Leonard took a great interest in the progress of the work, collecting himself a good portion of the funds required in the erection of the edifice. It was particularly through his special efforts that a room for Sunday-school purposes was provided in the building. The church, although still very comfortable, has become somewhat antiquated in its external appearance, but it has nobly served its day, and the generations that have worshipped within its sacred walls. It is the purpose of the pastor and congregation, at no distant day, tenderly to take it away and in its place to erect a most modern structure.

The Home of the "Fisherman."

The picture of the church of which Rev. G. H. Leonard, D. D., Basil, Ohio, is pastor, calls to mind the home of Elder Henry Leonard, the "Fisherman." In this church he worshiped for many years under the preaching of his son. Here was his spiritual home and not far away also his earthly residence. Any one who was ever permitted to enjoy the hospitality of "The Fisherman" would never forget the warm welcome and the kindly feeling, and the generous hospitality. Basil was largely built up by the Leonards, whose business push and energy drew around them a good, honest, and industrious class of people. The community is largely composed of Pennsylvania Dutch people, with a sprinkling of Swiss. Basil took its name from the fatherland city of the same name.

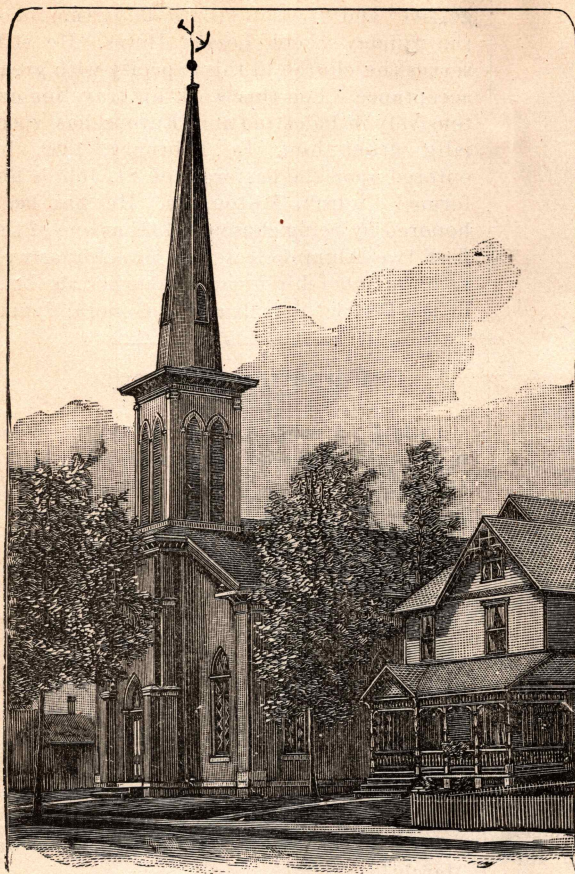

Heavenward.

Be earnest in all your endeavors
Be steadfast and honest and true;
And fail not to ask God's sweet blessing
On that which your hands find to do.

Be watchful and evermore helpful
Forgetting your sorrows the while;
By striving to light others' burdens
And trying to make others smile.

Be cheerful, and hopeful and trustful,
Though dark and though dreary the way;
Remember that after the night time
Comes sunlight with beautiful day.

Christ declares that all who give up anything of worth for his sake shall receive back an hundredfold, and yet there are people who occupy front seats in church who are afraid they will make themselves poor if they put a little money in the contribution basket.

First Reformed Church, Canton, O.

OF this church, the history dates back to the beginning of this century. Canton and Stark county was a German settlement. The history of Stark county has the following: "Most of the old pioneers were of Lutheran and Reformed stock and hence these denominations deserve first consideration. The first preaching in this neighborhood was held in the barn of Michael Reed, who lived just north of the fair grounds. The preacher was Father John Stauch, a Lutheran, who lived in Beaver county, Pa., and he came at stated periods as early as 1806. Alternating with him was Father Mahnenschmidt of the Reformed Church, preaching at the same place. About 1810 the Lutheran and Reformed took possession of a lot on West Tuscarawas street (now occupied by the Presbyterian Church) donated by Bezaleel Wells, the founder of Canton, for a house of worship, and erected upon it a small frame structure. Our people being accustomed to have a church and burying place in one, abandoned the lot and purchased one for $80 on East Tuscarawas street, then out of town, and built a union church of brick in the old style, square, with gallery and a high pulpit. Here they had alternate Reformed and Lutheran services. They constituted one church council, drawing up a constitution for the government of both congregations in 1822, by an equal number of members of each denomination, thus having all things in common until the year 1861, when the Reformed congregation entered upon the building of the new church, on a part of the lot. This led to litigation and a division of property. The timbers for this church were secured in a near forest on condition that the pastor, Rev. P. Her-bruck, fell the first tree necessary. This the pastor accomplished by giving the final cut, and the shouts of victory ascended while the huge tree fell. Several years ago under the pastorate of Rev. J. B. Rust, $3,000 was spent in reconstruction. The early records of the congregation are not very extensive, except of baptism. Rev. Benjamin Faust began this record in 1823, leaving fifteen pages blank for the records of the past. Rev. P. Herbruck, D. D., begins this record in 1834. He served the congregation 53 years and 6 months. Rev. J. B. Rust began his pastorate in January, 1886, and closed his services on account of failing health, in October, 1889. The present pastorate of Rev. F. Strassner began on January 1st, 1890.

Rev. D. W. Ebbert, A. M.

Pastor of St. John's Reformed Church, Milton, Pa.

REV. D. W. Ebbert was born at Everett, Bedford county, Pa. He is the only son of Jacob and Elizabeth (Whetstone) Ebbert, both now deceased. After attending the public and private schools, he entered Ursinus College in 1873 as a member of the junior class, graduating as first honor man (valedictorian) in 1875. He was prepared for the ministry in Ursinus College and licensed by Philadelphia Classis. His first pastorate was Trinity Reformed Church, Shippensburg, Pa., which he served till April, 1881, when he removed to Spring City, Chester county, Pa., to become pastor of the East Vincent Reformed Church. Whilst laboring in this field he organized the First Reformed congregation of Spring City in 1882, which grew rapidly in membership and influence. In 1887, having accepted a call to Trinity Reformed Church just organized in Dayton, O., he entered upon its pastorate in September of that year. This was a mission but at the end of the first year of his pastorate it became self-supporting. October 8, 1888, he was unanimously chosen by the Sunday-school Board of General Synod, as editor of the "Illustrative and Suggestive" and "Lesson Points" departments of the Sunday-school Lesson Helps. He still serves the church in this capacity with great acceptance. For this work his traveling extensively in Palestine and Europe has specially fitted him. In February, 1880, he entered upon the pastorate of St. John's Reformed Church, Milton, Pa. He has been honored by being chosen in 1879 as one of the first two Alumni elected as Director, as well as to membership upon various boards both of the District Synods and of General Synod.

Perpetual Almanac.

To find on what day of the week any day in any year occurred, use the following table:

JAN. 3 (2)	APRIL 2	JULY 2	OCT. 3
FEB. 6 (5)	MAY 4	AUG. 5	NOV. 6
MAR. 6	JUNE 0	SEPT. 1	DEC. 1
SUN. 1	TUES. 3	THURS. 5	SAT. 0
MON. 2	WED. 4	FRI. 6

To find the day of the week in any year, take the last two figures of the year, divide by four and add the result to the dividend (don't consider the remainder, allowance has been made for it.) Add to this the figure opposite the month, then add the day of the month, divide the sum by seven and the remainder will give the day of the week.

Illustration: What day of the week was March 10, 1822?

22 Last two figures.

5 One quarter of them.

6 Number opposite the month.

10 Day of the month.

43 Sum of all. Seven in 43 six times and one over, thus it was the first day of the week or Sunday.

Of course, it will be understood that when there is no remainder, the day is Saturday.

Leap years are those years exactly divisible by 4; in such years use 2 and 5 respectively for January and February, all other months are correct.

Kieffer Memorial Church, Sioux City, Iowa.

REV. PARLEY E. ZARTMAN, A. M., PASTOR.

EARLY in the autumn of 1887 the venerable Dr. Moses Kieffer came to Sioux City and gathered about him a band of Reformed people who became the nucleus of Grace Reformed Church. His labors were ended by his sudden illness and subsequent death. Rev. Frank Wetzel began his pastorate in December, 1887, and remained until July 1, 1890. In 1888-89 the beautiful church was erected, of which a picture is herewith given. This was erected in memory of him who spent the closing days of his fruitful ministry here; consequently the name, "Kieffer Memorial Church." Rev. M. L. Firor was pastor from July, 1890, to July 1891; after which the church was vacant for one year. The present pastor began his labors here July 1, 1892. In addition to the city congregation there is also the Ursinus congregation, about fifteen miles southeast of Sioux City.

The Kitchen.

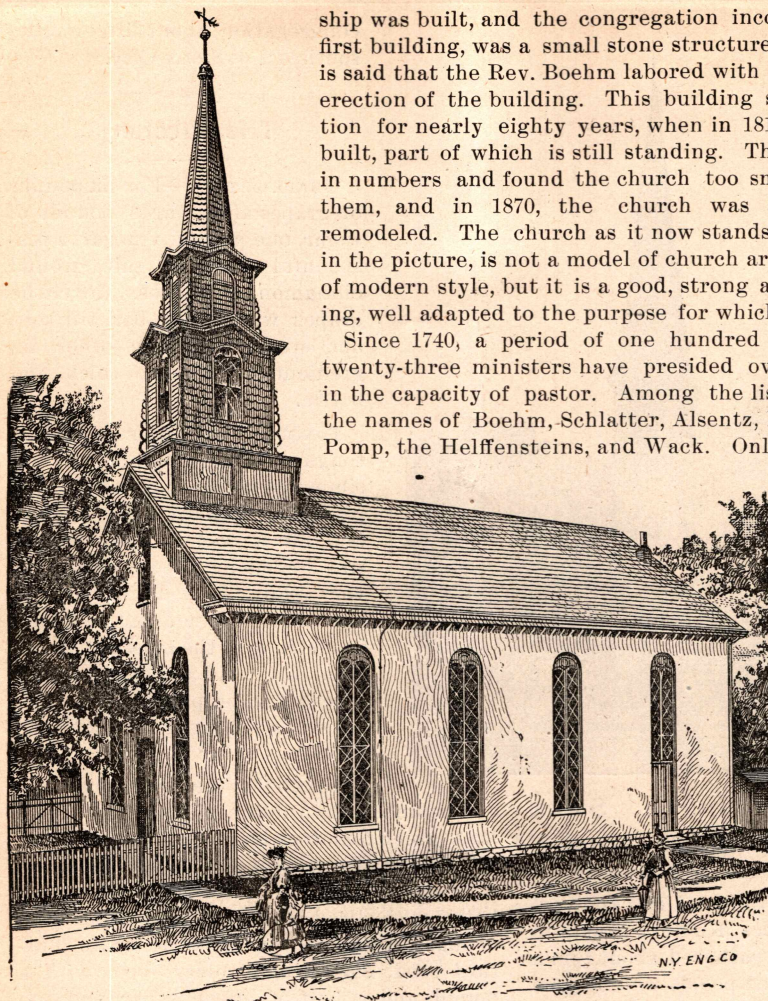

GRAPE CATSUP.—For six pounds of grapes allow three pounds of sugar, one pint of vinegar, a teaspoonful each of salt, ground cinnamon, and cloves. Cover the grapes with water, boil till soft, and strain. Add the other ingredients, boil down thick, and bottle.

TONGUE SANDWICHES.—Soak a tongue twenty-four hours, and simmer until a broom straw will pierce it. Remove from the fire, and let it cool in the water it was boiled in. Peel and slice it very thin. Into a quantity of butter rub dry mustard, making it as strong of the mustard as you like. On thin slices of bread spread the prepared butter, and lay slices of tongue between each two slices of bread.

MIXED CATSUP.—Slice four dozen cucumbers, two dozen onions, four dozen large green tomatoes, and four green peppers; sprinkle with one pint of salt, and let stand over night; then drain. Put in a preserve kettle with sliced horse radish, an ounce each of mace, white pepper, turmeric, white mustard seed, cloves, and celery seed, with a pound and a half of brown sugar and one gallon of vinegar; boil one hour. Put in jars, and add a teacup of cold vinegar to each.

VEGETABLE SALAD.—Slice thin a beet, half a turnip, half a carrot, and six potatoes of medium size; season with salt, and pour over it a mixture made thus; Stir together a salt-spoonful of salt, half that quantity of pepper, three tablespoonfuls of oil, and one of vinegar.

RIPE CUCUMBER CATSUP.—Grate a dozen large yellow cucumbers; to every quart add two grated onions, one teaspoonful each of pepper, salt and cloves. Put in a jar and cover with strong cold vinegar.

Boehm's Reformed Church, Blue Bell, Pa.

Rev. Chas. E. Wehler, Pastor. Celebrated its 150th Anniversary September 11, 1890.

BOEHM'S REFORMED CHURCH, one of the oldest in Eastern Pennsylvania, was founded by the Rev. John Philip Boehm, in 1740. As with many other churches, so with Boehm's, much that would be of interest and value in compiling her history, has been lost; yet there are sufficient facts to be ascertained to convince us that the community in which the church is located had been a preaching point even prior to the time the first house of worship was built, and the congregation incorporated, 1740. The first building, was a small stone structure, one story high. It is said that the Rev. Boehm labored with his own hands in the erection of the building. This building served the congregation for nearly eighty years, when in 1818, a new church was built, part of which is still standing. The congregation grew in numbers and found the church too small to accommodate them, and in 1870, the church was again enlarged and remodeled. The church as it now stands, and as represented in the picture, is not a model of church architecture, especially of modern style, but it is a good, strong and substantial building, well adapted to the purpose for which it was erected.

Since 1740, a period of one hundred and fifty-two years, twenty-three ministers have presided over this congregation in the capacity of pastor. Among the list of pastors we find the names of Boehm, Schlatter, Alsentz, Nicholas and Thomas Pomp, the Helfensteins, and Wack. Only three of the former pastors are now living: Drs. S. G. Wagner, C. G. Fisher, and J. H. Sechler. The present membership numbers 280. Few, indeed, if any, of the Reformed Churches in our country, can trace their history as far back as Boehm's; and fewer still have as interesting and varied a history as she.

We see the statement frequently made of the effects of a sermon: "He captured the audience." The question forces itself on us: Did the preacher capture the audience for himself, or for Christ? There is much of both of these businesses going on. Men are striving to capture audiences for Christ; this is a difficult and unpopular work. Others capture the audience for themselves. Quite another business is this capturing audiences for ourselves than for Christ. They have their reward, but it is not of God.

The Second, (German) Reformed Church of Dayton, Ohio.

IN 1852, most of the German members of the Reformed Church of Dayton, separated from their English speaking brethren and with Rev. A. Toensmeier as their pastor, effected an organization. Previous to this Rev. David Winters, D. D., and Rev.

A. Fries had preached in German, generally on Sabbath afternoons. The number of German members steadily increasing, they felt the need of holding regular services. Rev. Toensmeier was succeeded in October, 1856, by Rev. Carl Becker, who was succeeded by Rev. E. F. Luedders. He worked earnestly and faithfully. A hall was rented and services held in the forenoon. In 1859, the congregation was incorporated and soon after several centrally located lots were purchased and a brick church erected, which was dedicated in the fall of 1859. The future of the congregation now seemed assured. After five years of faithful service, Rev. Luedders resigned and Rev. W. Wittenwieler was elected his successor. From 1864 to 1866,

Rev. Geo. Rettig served as pastor. On April 1, 1867, Rev. O. J. Accola, D. D., began his work which ended October 1, 1886. December, 1886, Rev. H. A. Meier took charge of the work here and labored faithfully until January, 1890, when he accepted the position as Theological Professor in our German Seminary at Franklin, Wis. New life and new energy was shown by the members and the building of a new church edifice was undertaken on the site of the old one. It was ready to be dedicated on February 3rd, 1889, when the congregation and their pastor had a very unusual experience. A fire occurred which damaged the building so much that the dedication was delayed until March 31st. The newly papered and re-finished church was solemnly set apart and dedicated to the service of Him, who is with his people always. The edifice is 76x54. The Sabbath-school room is connected with the main audience room by sliding doors. Above the Sunday-school room is a gallery with a pipe organ. Rev. Prof. H. A. Meier's successor as pastor of this congregation is Rev. Benj. S. Stern, a young brother, who took up the work here July 6, 1890, and has since been laboring earnestly and faithfully. May both congregation and pastor be blessed and be a blessing to many.

The Christian World.

A WEEKLY religious paper is The Christian World published at Dayton, Ohio, in the interests of the Reformed Church. It was established in 1848, and was known as The Western Missionary. It served a good purpose in aiding in the establishment of the Reformed Church in the West. It has maintained an honest and conservative position during the years of internal trouble, and as such deserves a hearty support from the church. It ranks among the best church papers published. The California Letters, and the Ganderfoot Letters are alone worth the subscription price. It contains sixteen pages of matter and is full of the best reading. Give it a trial. Make it a weekly visitor to your Christian home.

THE FARM.

It is stated that the amount of cheese imported by the combined countries of Europe is about 480,000,000 pounds, and of this England takes over 360,000,000 pounds, or nearly 70 per cent. of the whole. France imports 63,000,000 pounds, and Germany imports about 40,000,000 pounds. England makes a large quantity of cheese, but eats it nearly all, and only exports about 4,000,000 pounds. Germany exports about 40,000,000 pounds and France between 16,000,000 and 18,000,000. Switzerland sends away 86,000,000 pounds, and Holland 112,000,000 pounds.

MARKETING ENSILAGE.—Here is a novel wrinkle. It is printed that a way to ship silage and preserve it in small quantities has been solved by A. C. Carey, who has patented a sheet iron box and head and press, to put the silage in by. The box is twenty inches in diameter and twenty-eight inches high and holds two hundred pounds of silage under a pressure of three thousand pounds. The corn is put in the silo, and then after staying awhile is put in these boxes, which are only to ship it in. Corn may be preserved in a small way by cutting it in short lengths and packing it

Paper?

If you are not now reading a church paper you are neglecting a great means of grace and it is your duty at once to subscribe for one. Why not have a religious paper in your home as well as the secular. Did you ever see The Christian World published at Dayton, Ohio? If not, send for sample.

It is related of one of the Scottish professors of medicine that one day, when explaining an interesting case to some students, he minutely detailed the various symptoms of the disease, which could be learned from various appearances on the teeth of the patient.

The learned professor was somewhat horrified when the woman, anxious to help, took out her teeth, saying:

"Please, sir, I'll hand them round. Some of the gentleman might like to look at them more closely."

Medical Student: "I think, father, when I have graduated, I will become a specialist." Father: "What sort of a specialist?" "I think I will make a speciality of ear diseases." "I think you had better become a tooth specialist. Man has only two ears, but he has thirty-two teeth that are always more or less out of order."

As a general thing the more money we put in the bank the harder it is to lay up treasure in heaven.

There are people who are willing to do almost anything for the Lord except shake hands in church.

The Discovery of America.

REV. F. STRASSNER.

CAN it be possible that our hurrying nation will take time to reflect upon the past? It seems as though the four hundredth anniversary is to be properly appreciated, whether in the true historical manner or in the glorification of Columbus, as the discoverer of America. A certain quarter seeks to make capital of the man and has no doubt used its influence in creating "Columbus Day." In this way many of the historical facts which would not be very tasteful, might be covered. Columbus undoubtedly discovered America, so have others before him, but he made the fact known to the nations of the old world. Was it not providential and a merciful design of God, to provide a home for his oppressed and persecuted people, to give them a home in the newly discovered country? It became a refuge and hiding place for the oppressed of all nations, and a deliverance from deluded and cruel powers. God's time had surely come!

To get a true view of the design and purpose of God in the discovery and settlement of America, we must look back a little further than Columbus Day. The reigning power of the old world had been "Might is right." The ruling church assumed the greatest might and was striving for the mastery over the whole world, not to convert but pervert, rule or ruin. The rulers had reason to tremble when threatenings were conveyed to them by the assumption of the god of this world. The word of man was promulgated instead of the word of God and as these did not agree, the advocates of "Thus saith the Lord" were silenced by most cruel martyrdom. The forerunners of the Reformation had prepared the way so that the Reformers arose in every part of Europe bearing the Word of God with its glad tidings directly to the people. The struggle was most cruel, but the light could be hidden no longer. Thousands preferred to die rather than to give up the Bible truths. Europe was full of lordships, servitude and slavery. In the year 1410, John Gutenberg, the discoverer of printing was born, and in 1450, he published the first printed Bible. The first English Bible was published in 1535. Now the printing press became a new power. The people read and heard the Gospel in their own language. The dark age had to give way to the light of the Reformation, but not without a last attempt of man's power for supremacy. In France 70,000 Huguenots (Reformed) Christians were massacred in 1572. Thousands fled for their lives. Refugees fell into the hands of the Inquisitions, which were instituted to destroy the progress of the Reformation. For the sake of the truth life became a burden through persecution to the faithful, who passed through the inventions of devilish devices. The old country being convulsed with internal and external divisions, politically and religiously, during the 15th century, where should the weary find a resting place?

The new world discovered by Christopher Columbus in the year 1492, had now significance for the various nations, for all wished to establish colonies. Here was an opportunity of forming settlements and at the same time getting rid of the poor refugees. Although the new world was yet a wilderness, it was preferred to civilized Europe with its fierce and lasting wars. The Hollanders colonized New York, then called New Amsterdam; they considered this the most advantageous harbor for commerce. The English made Boston its headquarters and established New England to carry on manufactories and schools. The Germans, true to their nature sought peaceful homes and settled around Philadelphia, the city of brotherly love. Here we look upon a trio of new nationalities, each retaining their peculiarity and language. Each worshipping according to the dictates of their conscience and all of these honoring the Word of God according to their faith.

These three nationalities did not interfere with one another, until England, ever ready for conquests, desired to give them its government and swallow up the colonies. New Amsterdam was given to the Duke of York, and was named after him. The Germans were too industrious, to trouble themselves much about the government, but as a peace loving people they yielded to the order of things peaceably. The English thus became prominent as they were at home under the English government and its laws, and they derived great benefits from this move. However, this had a tendency of uniting the various nationalities into a union of American settlers and the motto was adopted "In union is strength," which is now the key stone of the nation.

The French located mostly in the southern part, but disputed with England the possessions of the more northern territory. Spain, and the adherents to Rome generally, located in the southern part as far as South America. Thus America became a country of all nations who laid claim to civilization and enterprise. This plant is the wonder of the world and its growth has placed the old country into the shade. God surely had a design in the development of the new world and as long as this nation will honor God and His Word, it will be a bright and shining light in the world. Let us never forget the hard work and prayers of our predecessors upon whose foundation we are building; let us take heed, lest we build with hay and stubble, which shall be tried with fire. "In God we trust!" His word we honor and obey! Let each citizen adopt this and it shall be well with us and our posterity. The past conveys lessons to us, which, at this four hundredth anniversary should be well considered, lest we progress backwards and experience the same old trouble and misery as a natural consequence. The Reformation of the church in the 15th century conveyed to us the blessing and favor of God most signally; let its beacon light ever shine brightly to enlighten us and all the nations of the earth. Cling to God and let His Word ever be the only rule of faith and life, and it shall be well with us and our children.

The man who has no joy in giving has no joy in anything.

People don't pray much who are always trying to see how little they can pay.

The daughter's purity is safe whose Christian mother shares every secret of her heart; that son's character is hedged about who has for his most confidential friend a Christian father. They are in danger who wear a mask in the presence of kind parents and uncover the heart and inner life only to those who have no right to such confidences.

"He is just a prince of a boy," said Mrs. Hatton, speaking of Willie; and I listened and watched; for a prince, you know, is the son of a king, and I wanted to see if Willie was like a King I have read of.

When he dropped his hoop and ran in to amuse baby for mamma, and did it so pleasantly, I began to get my answer. When he came out of school smiling, instead of pouting because he had been kept late, I felt pretty sure. But when he cut his apple in two and gave one-half to ragged Ned Brown, I was satisfied.

All of us can not be a Paul, but most of us can do as much as the poor widow who threw her mite into the treasury, and obtained the notice of our Lord. If you can't be a sun, try being a moon; if you can't make a Websterian speech, try if you can say a word of comfort to the distressed. It is not our duty to be great or distinguished, or to get our names into the newspapers; but it is our duty to do what we can, even though that be a very little, for there are so many of us that if each does what he can for his brother, everybody will be a little happier and a little better.
